

6516205115.txt

I personally think that it is wonderfull that satellite radio is offering instant traffic and weather reports. I for one spend a lot of time in my car traveling, therefore, this information is valuable to me. I feel I have the right to this information however it is offered to me. To stop this type of advancement in technology and information would be a poor decision as our society is always longing for advancement.
Thank You